

display math

1

`display math`. The term display math refers to a math formula that T_EX places on a line by itself with extra space above and below so as to set it off from the surrounding text. A display math formula is enclosed by ‘`$$`’s. T_EX reads `display math` in display math mode.