control word   1

`control word.`   A control word is a control sequence that consists of an escape character followed by one or more letters.[1] TEX ignores any spaces or ends-of-line that follow a control word, except to note that they end the control word.

---

[1] A "letter" here has the strict meaning of a character with category code 11.